Are you a teacher or administrator?

From grade school to grad school, you could share your faith in a classroom overseas. Christian Reformed World Missions has opportunities for both certified and non-certified teachers and administrators to serve in Christian and secular schools and universities around the world for the '09-'10 school year.

You could serve in...

- Asia: ELIC, ERRC, International Schools of China, Jian Hua
- Dominican Republic: Santiago Christian School
- Haiti: Quisqueya Christian School
- Honduras: Academia Los Pinares or the International School
- Japan: Christian Academy in Japan
- Nicaragua: Nicaragua Christian Academy
- Nigeria: Hillcrest Christian School
- And elsewhere!

Christian Reformed World Missions works in partnership with a number of schools and sending organizations throughout the world. Although the individual schools and organizations are responsible for hiring teachers and administrators, CRWM comes alongside CRCNA members who are employed by these organizations by appointing them as partner missionaries. Please join us in praying for many more partners in education for the coming school year.
